CEPMLP and Professional Development

Centre for Energy, Petroleum and Mineral Law and Policy (CEPMLP)

The Centre for Energy, Petroleum and Mineral Law and Policy at the University of Dundee is the internationally renowned graduate school in the field of international business transactions and natural resources and energy law and policy. Our interdisciplinary approach to teaching, research and consultancy provides a unique perspective on how governments, business and communities operate, providing the professionals of today with the ability to meet the challenges of tomorrow. CEPMLP maintains close links with government ministries, non-government agencies (NGOs) and international institutions worldwide, as well as partnerships with leading industry players.

CEPMLP is the leading institution for research and postgraduate teaching in its field and currently has over 600 postgraduate students from more than 50 countries on Masters and Doctoral programmes of study. CEPMLP provides extensive professional development training and consultancy for international agencies, governments and multi-national companies.

Professional Development

Our professional development seminars, delivered by highly experienced sector specialists and industry leaders, are attended by professionals from natural resource and energy companies, financial institutions, law, accounting and consultancy firms, international organisations, government ministries and academia from around the globe - thus creating a world-wide platform for practical interaction and networking opportunities. These seminars, for the natural resource and energy sectors, include negotiation skills, petroleum regulation and licensing, managing contracts and agreements, arbitration and dispute management skills.

“ In a coming ‘golden age of gas’ the topic was timely and really helped my professional development. ”

Ben Kinney, Advanced Engineering Associates International (AEAI)

“ I found the course very relevant to my work as a legal counsel in the oil and gas industry. ”

Ndouke Sunday Akpan, Shell Nigeria

“ Continuing professional development is a sine qua non for every senior professional. Undergoing such professional development in a centre of excellence such as the CEPMLP with the array of brilliant speakers has for me been very rewarding in terms of the invaluable insights gained and the networking opportunities. ”

Chikwendu Madumere, Madumere and Madumere

“ Very well structured course with a great array of guest speakers. Would definitely recommend the course to lawyers and non-lawyers alike. ”

Paul Stevenson, Tanfield Chambers

“ An excellent, informative course providing a very good grounding to lawyers and contract advisers involved in the oil industry. ”

David Henry, Centrica

“ A wonderful academic and professional experience. Couldn't find such first hand practical professional experience from practising practitioners of the industry anywhere else. ”

Nana Akua Agyei, Ministry of Justice & Attorney General's Department, Ghana

“ It is a practical course focused not only upon current practice but also upon emerging trends in the industry. ”

David Camacho, Gran Colombia Gold Corp
