FAQ's: http://ec.europa.eu/education/programmes/mundus/faq/faq5_en.html

If you are interested you should apply directly to an Erasmus Mundus consortium. A list of selected Erasmus Mundus Courses can be found on the following web site:

http://ec.europa.eu/education/programmes/mundus/index_en.html

From the main menu choose 'Selected projects : 'List of Masters Courses selected under Action 1 or List of projects to enhance attractiveness selected under Action 4 '.

TEMPUS PROGRAMME

The Tempus programme is the Trans-European mobility scheme for university studies which enables universities from EU Member States to cooperate with those in Western Balkans, Eastern Europe and Central Asia, and the Mediterranean partner countries in higher education modernisation projects. Student mobility is actively encouraged as an integral part of Curriculum Development projects. Although it is desirable that exchanges should take place in both directions, this is not obligatory. Further information about Tempus can be found on the following web site:
