

Welcome to Incoming 2011 LLB Students

A warm welcome to the Law School to all undergraduate students who will be joining us in September 2011. During the week commencing 22nd August you will receive hard copy information directly from the Law School which will give you full details of key events at the start of the year, information and reading to look at in advance of arrival and the induction programme you will go through in Week 0.

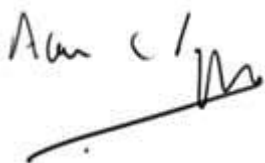

Week 0, more often referred to as Freshers' Week starts on 7th September. The University runs a programme that week for all new undergraduate students known as Welcome Week and we strongly recommend that you take part in as much of that programme as you can.

The Law School programme of events starts on:

- Wednesday 7th Sep. When you will be welcomed to the Law School, meet your adviser of studies and matriculate. On
- Thursday 8th Sep. You will have your first exposure to real cases, materials and the workings of the law when you take part in the Law School's induction programme, and on
- Friday 9th Sep. You will be introduced to key skills in a specialist session with one of the University's most experienced skills tutors.

For further details of all of these activities and events go to our guide, Preparing for Law.

We look forward to welcoming you at the start of semester.

Professor Alan C. Page

Dean of School