

AI and Scots Law: Transforming the Future
Second Half Day Workshop (Part 2): AI and Delict
Monday 15.09.2025 University of Dundee

8.30-9.00	Arrival and Refreshments
9.00-9.05	Welcome, Dr Michiel Poesen, University of Aberdeen and Dr Lorna Gillies, University of Dundee
	Panel 1: AI and Delict: Implications for Scots Law Chair: Iain Mitchell KC, Tanfield Chambers
9.05-9.20	Keynote Address, Professor Emeritus of Law Kenneth Norrie, University of Strathclyde
9.20-9.40	Jonathan Brown, University of Strathclyde, “ “Advertising Puff” or “Assumption of Responsibility”?: The Utility of a Unitary View of ‘Obligations,’” in person
9.40-10.00	Matthew Ogden, University of Dundee, “Whose Intelligence? The Bias and Prejudice of AI,” in person
10.00-10.20	Maeve Malone, University of Dundee, “AI, The ‘Progress in Medical Science’ and The Responsibility of the ‘Human’ in Scots Law Medical Negligence,” on MS Teams
10.20-10.40	Ruairidh Leishman, Shepherd and Wedderburn LLP, “Deus Ex Machina: rethinking the standard of care and breach of the duty in the age of AI,” in person
10.40-11am	Roundtable Discussion (10 minutes) and tea/coffee break
	Panel 2 – AI and Delict: Historical and Comparative Perspectives Chair: Professor Colin Reid, University of Dundee
11am -11.20	Gius Di Donata, Edinburgh Napier University, “Justinian's Spectre: Echoes of Roman Law in Scottish Jurisprudence,” in person
11.20-11.40	Emile Zitzke, Wits University, South Africa, “Chatbots and Negligent Misstatements: Common Law Delictual Liability in South Africa,” on MS Teams
11.40-12.00	Thitat Chavisschinda, National Institute of Development Administration, Thailand,” Exploring Fault, Risk, and Justice: Civil Liability for AI in Thailand and the ASEAN Context,” on MS Teams
	5 minute comfort break
12.05-12.25	Nurus Sakinatul Fikriah Mohd Shith Putera, Universiti Teknologi Mara, Malaysia, “Continuity and Change in Liability Frameworks for AI in Tourism,” on MS Teams
12.25-12.45	Deimante Rimkute, Vilnius University & Ghent University, “Liability for AI Caused Damage in the EU: Answered and Remaining Questions,” on MS Teams
12.45-1.05	Michiel Poesen, University of Aberdeen, “Taking Stock of AI and Civil Liability in the European Union,” in person
1.05-1.15	Roundtable Discussion on above (10 minutes). Thanks to Keynote, Chairs and all Speakers
1.15-1.50	Lunch and Close of Workshop