

The ESCAPE Trial: Investigating whether prolonged antibiotics can prevent permanent Pseudomonas infection in bronchiectasis

The bronchiectasis exacerbation and symptom tool (BEST) diary card will be completed daily electronically on Castor electronic patient reported outcomes (ePRO), either via a weblink or through the Castor Connect application. Participants will receive the questions below:

Please select one answer for each question which best describes how you feel today.

Date:    /    /    _____

Breathlessness	Tick
None
Breathlessness when hurrying or walking up a slight hill
Have to walk slowly on level ground or stop for breath after a few minutes on level ground
Can walk less than 100 m or a few minutes on level ground before having to stop
Breathless when washing or dressing

Fatigue	Tick
I do not feel tired
I feel a little tired
I feel tired but can still do the things I would like to do
Tiredness is stopping me from doing some things I want to do
I am so tired I am unable to carry out my usual activities

Sputum Volume	Tick
No sputum
Less than a teaspoon
Tea spoon to an egg cup
Egg-cup to a cup
More than a cup

Cough	Tick
None
Mild
Moderate
Severe
Very severe

Sputum colour	Tick
No sputum
White
Yellow
Green
Dark green
Blood stained

Cold and flu symptoms	Tick
None
Sore throat, sore muscles, or runny nose
Fever/ high temperate
I feel like I have an infection

Thank you completing your daily diary.

A monthly question will be included to capture any new exacerbations:

Over the last month, have you taken any new antibiotic treatments for a chest infection?

Yes	<input type="checkbox"/>
No	<input type="checkbox"/>