Dundee and Dr. Sturrock had an examination of the body and until then none of the foregoing articles pro¬ ed were touched, neither was the body of the deeased.

We found

in scullery off kitchen.

This towel has one spot of blood thereon and was slightly discoloured, as if it had been used to dry some personal hands, which were bloody.

It seems to me that whoever committed the murder had washed his hands in the sink in the Scullery after the act.

We found

{SUNDAY TELEGRAPH, 5th Edition, dated 14th October 1912 lying in living room.

There was no newspaper of later date than that in the house, so far as I could see.

On the same Sunday afternoon, 3rd November 1912 I took possession of the following articles:

CURGALS BOOK,

which I found in Main Hall.

MATCH / MATCH BOX AND MATCHES THEREIN

found in Miss Milne's bedroom, showing that she used different kind of matches from what were found in the Main Hall.

VELVET BRESSARD

which I found lying on the floor of Main Hall.

HALF COTTON SHEET

which I found in kitchen similar to

found lying on body of deceased.

Early that same Sunday afternoon, 3rd November, 1912,

John T. Rodger, Photographer, Broughty Ferry, took three photos of body as same lay in Main Hall and Mr Thomas K. Roddan, Burgh Surveyor, also made a sketch of Main Hall and body lying therein.

Mr Roddan, while he made measurements.

That same afternoon C. C. Sempill handed me 17 sovereigns in a small purse which he had got in a drawer in wardrobe in deceased's bedroom.

Late in the afternoon of same day, Sunday, 3rd November, 1912, I instructed witness Coullis, joiner, to remove Miss/
Miss Milne's body to Mortuary at Dundee for Post Mortem examination.

Constable Coullie, Captain Buttie, and I removed the body from the Hall and put it into a shell.

The deceased remained dressed in the clothes in which she had died, and these were not taken off.

The body was removed to Mortuary with clothes on.

These clothes included:

BLUE CLOAK (PRODUCED)

which she had on, and on which she was found lying.

I then locked up Elmgrove and took possession of keys.

Coullie and I drove to Dundee Mortuary with the body.

We stopped at mortuary and I left Coullie there till I went for the key of gate of cemetery in which the mortuary stands and for key of mortuary itself.

The key was in Dundee Police Office, and I went there and Sgt. Croll, Dundee Police, came back with us with these keys.

We then carried the body into mortuary - lifted the body out of shell and laid it on the table.

Sergeant Croll then locked up the Mortuary and he and I took keys back to the Police Office.

Croll took charge of keys.

I understand the Post Mortem examination took place that same night.

Early in the afternoon of Monday, 4th November.

Mr Mackintosh, Procurator Fiscal, telephoned to Police Office to say that body might now be buried.

On Monday, 4th November, 1912, about 4 o'clock p.m.

Coulie telephoned to Broughty Ferry Police Office that he was to go for the body in order to bury same.

I told him to go to Dundee for it.

I went and opened Elmgrove about 5 p.m., and it was about 5.30 p.m. that Coulie arrived with body in a coffin.

The coffin was screwed down before it was brought to Elmgrove.

The body /
The body was interred next day.

On Monday 4th November, 1912, Constable James Sutlie, Broughty Ferry Police, was sent by me to Dundee and procured from the mortuary and brought down and handed to me, the following, being clothes deceased was wearing and which remained on body when taken up to mortuary, viz:—

LADY'S BLACK GLOVES, and LADY'S FUR stole,
A PAIR OF LIGHT COLOURED GLOVES, A PAIR OF EYE GLASSES WITH CASE, and A BLACK VEIL,
found in Miss Milne's Dining Room.

On 3rd December, 1912, I took possession of a FLOWER VASE
which was standing on second step of back stair, and had been full of urine.

Elm Grove was locked up all along by the Police and the keys were in my possession. The gate was similarly locked and the key in our possession.

On Monday evening, 4th November, 1912, Detective Lieutenant Trench of Glasgow came and assisted.

On Tuesday, 5th November, we got information from witness James Don, Scavenger, as to a man he had seen leaving Elm Grove at 4.30 a.m. on Wednesday 16th October, 1912, and on same date, Margaret Campbell, Domestic Servant, Caithlochan Villas, gave information as to a man she had seen walking in Elm Grove grounds in forenoon of first or second week of October, 1912.

Don and Margaret Campbell gave description of the man they had seen.

Miss /
Miss Milne's nephew who had been communicated with then offered a reward of £100 for apprehension and conviction of murderer, and the chief constable then made out

HANDBILL (HOW PRODUCED)

dated 6th November, 1912, giving description etc.
and intimating reward, and same was circulated at once.

Information was obtained during the week ending 9th November, 1912, also from Misses Jennie and Alexandrina McIntosh, James M. Malcolm, John Wood, and James Urquhart, John B. Duncan, and others.

Chief Constable had taken possession of a large amount of correspondence of deceased showing that she corresponded with a number of ladies and gentlemen whom she had met in hotels in London and on the Continent, and elsewhere and on 6th November, the Chief Constable proceeded to London to make enquiries there.

Detective Lieutenant Trench, Deputy Chief Davidson, Dundee

Dundee, and I continued our investigation, and saw various witnesses.

On 15th November, 1912, Mr. Trench received from Chief Constable Sampill then in London,

PHOTOGRAPH NO. 1 (now produced)

which was shown along with a number of other photographs to the witnesses John Wood, James Don, Margaret Campbell, two girls McIntosh, James M. Malcolm, James Urquhart, John B. Duncan, and his friends, Alex. Gray Potter, and Henry Campbell Nanneman.

I was informed by Mr. Trench that represented a man named Charles Warner, then in police custody in Kent.

All the witnesses to whom the photographs were shown picked out Warner as strongly resembling the man they had seen on the dates given by them at Kingsrove or vicinity.

Mr. Sampill returned from London on 16th November, 1912, and and after his return he received

PHOTOGRAPH NO. 2 (now produced)

which was shown along with other photos to witnesses before named, viz:-

James Don, John Wood, James W. Malcolm, James
Urquhart, Jessie McIntosh and Alexandrina McIntosh, who all said that

PHOTOGRAPH NO. 2

resembled the man they had seen. They all recognized

PHOTOGRAPH No. 2

as representing the same man as

PHOTOGRAPH NO. 1

but they were not prepared to say from photograph that he was the man till they saw the man.

Mr Sampill returned to London on 10th November, 1912, and acting on instructions received from him on 22nd November, the following witnesses, viz:-

John Wood,
James Don,
Margaret/
Margaret Campbell,
Jessie McIntosh,
Alexandrina McIntosh were despatched to London in order to proceed to Maidstone, in the prison of which Warner then was - to see if they could identify him.
I am aware that these five witnesses all went to Maidstone Jail and that Wood and Don, Jessie McIntosh and Alexandrina McIntosh identified him there, but Margaret Campbell was not sure, and did not do so.
On 27th November, 1912, I showed to Miss Dorothy Marion Stone - a witness - the \text{BLUE CLOAK}

before referred to which Miss Milne was wearing when murdered, and Miss Stone identified same as the cloak she had seen her wearing in Dundee on the afternoon of Tuesday, 18th October, 1912.
I have to state that when Miss Milne went from home for \[ a/ \] a few days she gave information at Police Office, and handed in to Police Office key of small gate of Elm Grove, which was always locked, when she was away.

When we had this key no one could get inside Elm Grove grounds, large gate being bolted inside and small gate locked.

I keep the Register in the Police Office of Dwelling House temporarily closed as intimated to us and the following is the record for the year 1912

as regards Elm Grove, from information given to us

by Miss Milne, viz:—

Left on 5th January, 1912.

Returned on 24th February, 1912.

Left on 9th April, 1912.

Returned on 3rd August, 1912.

Left on 29th August, 1912.

Returned on 4th September, 1912.

Left on 20th September, 1912.

Returned on 26th September, 1912.

We had no intimation either of departure or return after that.

When/
When we had the key of gate during Miss Milne's absences, a policeman got key from me regularly and visited the grounds five or six times every 24 hours - the visits being both during day and night.
