Distance Learning Programmes at CEPMLP

The CEPMLP degree programmes are designed to be relevant to developments in the energy and natural resources industry sectors. The Centre has collaborated with major companies in the energy and resource sectors to develop these programmes to equip you with the necessary skills to respond to the pressures currently affecting these sectors.

With the CEPMLP Distance Learning Programme, you have the option to gain a valuable qualification at your own pace without having to leave your full time career on hold as well as the opportunity to access the teaching quality and research expertise that CEPMLP is known for.

Course content
CEPMLP has eight specialised distance learning degrees available:

- LLM International Energy Law and Policy
- LLM International Mineral Law and Policy
- LLM International Natural Resources Law and Policy
- LLM International Oil and Gas Law and Policy
- LLM International Petroleum Taxation and Finance
- MBA International Mineral Resources Management
- MBA International Oil and Gas Management
- MSc International Energy Studies without specialisation

Postgraduate Certificate or Diploma qualifications are also available as an option. The programme is structured around a self-study and research approach supported by the VLE - CEPMLP’s interactive online teaching and learning environment - and contact with the assigned tutor and academic supervisors from the faculty.

To apply
- A good 4-year degree, equivalent to a UK honours degree, preferably at upper 2nd class level or above or equivalent in Law, Economics, Geology, Petroleum or Mining Engineering, Accountancy, Finance, Business Studies or other appropriate discipline
- Minimum English Language proficiency: IELTS 6.5
- Some work experience preferred

Assessment
Academic credits are achieved through examinations and assessed research papers. Self study and research are key components to success in achieving qualifications with CEPMLP.

Arrangements will be made for examinations to be taken at a British Council or other academic centres in the students’ country of residence.
