Purpose of the Remuneration Committee

The role of the Remuneration Committee is to recommend to the University Court the remuneration strategy and policy framework for Professorial and Grade 10 staff, including the Principal and the University Executive Group (UEG). In so doing, the Committee’s aim is to be an exemplar of sector-wide good governance and best practice in relation to remuneration, reward matters and any termination arrangements (severance), for senior staff.

The Committee will report to the Court on decisions regarding the salary, emoluments and terms and conditions of service for the members of the UEG, including the Principal.

The Committee will delegate authority to the UEG the application of the Remuneration Policy and Procedure for all other staff at grade 10, but will receive and consider appropriate reports and monitoring data from the UEG in relation to its decisions in discharging this delegated authority.

In so doing, the Committee must:

- take account of SFC’s guidance on the governance of senior salaries.
- give due regard to the academic, institutional and financial wellbeing of the University.
- ensure the University’s principles of fairness, equality, diversity and inclusion are applied and monitored.
• ensure that the Principal, the members of the UEG and staff at grade 10 are fairly rewarded for their individual contribution to the University’s overall performance.
• ensure compliance with the financial parameters within which the Committee and the UEG must operate when making salary/monetary awards, approving 'other paid work' e.g. consultancy payments or considering termination arrangements.
• satisfy itself that the grade 10 staff who have been made salary/monetary awards have actively engaged in the University’s Objective-setting and Review process and demonstrate performance which supports the University’s Vision and Strategy.
• fulfil its duties as outlined in the Schedule of Delegation.

2. Context

The Scottish Funding Council (SFC) requires that the University follows the principles of the Financial Reporting Council’s UK Corporate Governance Code (FRC Code), insofar as they apply to the University sector and the recently-published Scottish Code of Good Higher Education Governance 2017. The University is also required to follow the guidance to institutions set out by the Committee of University Chairs in its Guide for Members of Higher Education Bodies in the UK (CUC Guide).

Both these guides require the University to establish a Remuneration Committee to determine and review the salaries, terms and conditions (and, where appropriate, severance payments) of the head of the institution and such other members of staff as the governing body deems appropriate. They also emphasise that the composition of the Committee should be of independent/lay members, with best practice suggesting that the chair of the governing body should not chair the Committee.

The University is required to adhere to the principles of the Scottish Code of Good HE Governance (2017), specifically under paragraphs 78-81 on Remuneration Committees.

The CUC Guide states that the reports of the Remuneration Committee to the governing body should provide sufficient detail of the broad criteria and policies against which decisions have been made. However, the FRC Code requires the production of a tabulated report setting out Directors’ remuneration (i.e. members of UEG in the University context), covering salary, severance payments, benefits in kind, pension contributions and individual pension fund valuations. This report on the remuneration of UEG members is presented each year to the Remuneration Committee and to the University Court. In addition, a simplified version setting out the salaries of members of the UEG by salary band in published each year in the University’s Annual Report and Accounts. The SFC imposes specific requirements on Remuneration Committees in respect of setting policy statements on severance and overseeing severance arrangements. The SFC annual accounts direction also gives guidance on the information that should be disclosed in an institution’s annual financial statements about the Principal’s remuneration and any severance payments to staff earning over £70,000 per annum or where the costs of all elements of a proposed arrangement amount to more than £100,000.
3. Composition of the Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee must have the expertise to review and determine the salaries, emoluments and terms and conditions of service for the most senior members of the University (i.e. the Principal and the UEG) and to monitor the application of the Remuneration Policy to ensure it is being applied fairly, effectively and consistently, in the University’s interests. In the interests of equity, the Remuneration Committee should aim as far as possible to have a diverse membership in relation to the Protected Characteristics as defined in the Equality Act 2010.

The membership of the Committee will comprise:

- The Chair of Court.

In addition, a separate meeting of the Committee will be convened to consider the salary and other terms & conditions of the Principal, which require to be discussed. The Principal will not attend this meeting.
