University Court
Skills Matrix

The Scottish Code of Good HE Governance requires that ‘[…] The Governing Body shall draw up and make public a full evaluation of the balance of skills, attributes and experience required for membership of the Governing Body. The membership of the Governing Body shall be regularly assessed against this evaluation […]’.

The format of the Skills Matrix for the Court was developed at the 2014 Court Retreat and the following summary of returns was approved by the Court for publication on 24 October 2016.

Dr CC Milburn
24/10/2016
Other (as listed by members of Court)

- Good knowledge of national government and development of legislation and policy.
- Public engagement, external relations, media, branding, and communications experience.
- Customer Service.
- Health & Safety.
- Strategy setting and Quality and Performance management.
- Partnership and collaborative working with educational institutes overseas.
- Academic research.
- Academic assessment & review.
- Coaching and mentoring strategy.
- International living and work experience.
- Science and technology.
- Multi-agency working.
- Project management.
OTHER (as listed by members of Court)

- External relations, branding, and communications experience.
- Customer Service.
- Health & Safety.
- Strategy setting and Quality and Performance management.
- Partnership and collaborative working with educational institutes overseas.
- Academic research.
- Academic assessment & review.
- Coaching and mentoring strategy.
- International living and work experience.
- Multi-agency working.
- Project management.