
Statement
As the governing body of the University responsible for the health, safety and welfare of staff, students and others affected by the University’s activities, the University Court requires annual reports by Heads of College, University Secretary and Head of Safety Services.

Arrangements
Heads of College and University Secretary will submit an annual report to the Health and Safety Sub-committee.

Head of Safety Services will submit an annual report to the Human Resources Committee.